EAGLE TEAM HIGHLIGHTS:

SWIVE: Issy girls wrapped up their successful season with a dessert awards ceremony on Tuesday. Many scholar athlete pins were awarded as well as the traditional "paper plate" awards. Other awards given include:

KingCo conference honors 1st team all KingCo - Sophia Cancelosi and Gillian Tu; 2nd team all KingCo - Annah Zhang, Katie Ueda, Isabelle Huynh. Class awards: Fresh - Amelia Bowen, Sophomore - Augustine Tangas, Junior - Sophia Cancelosi, Senior - Anna Grigoryan. Most improved diver - Alekyha Tebbe; Most valuable diver - Stephanie Callans; Most improved swimmer - Calista Jurgens. Most valuable swimmer - Isabelle Huynh; Most inspirational - Doris Wang; Coaches award - Emily Robinson. Special thanks to our senior captains for all their hard work - Anna Grigoryan, Isabelle Huynh, Alyssa Lung, Maria Milkowski, and Sydney Wan. Now we turn the pool over to the boys! Have a great season, EAGLES!

Volleyball: Congrats to the Varsity volleyball team on a competitive run at the 4A State tournament! The Eagles went 1-2 overall, which marked the first time Issaquah has won a match at state since finishing 2nd in 2010! The Eagles had a tough draw on day one. They faced Tahoma - the #1 ranked team, and who ended up winning it all - in their first game on Friday. They battled hard and took a set off of them, but lost 1-3 (18-25, 25-20, 18-25, 9-25). Later Friday evening, they faced West Valley and their boisterous home crowd, but flew by them, winning 3-1 (20-25, 25-14, 25-15, 25-19). In their third game on Saturday, they battled hard against Richland (who finished 2nd in state last year), but came up a bit short, losing a hard-fought game 1-3 (17-25, 25-19, 23-25, 22-25). Throughout it all the girls had fun the entire season. Congrats on an impressive 22-5 record! CaCaaaaaawww! Congratulations to Kathryn Nestlerode, Tessa Pardon, and Sidney Cottrell for each receiving the sportsmanship award during the tournament!

Tennis: The tennis team celebrated a very successful season. What an awesome team effort to obtain #1 in Kingco 4A. Additional achievements: #1 and #2 in doubles District play-offs. 4 players headed to State. Luke Sarausad and Adam Ketefian voted first team and 2nd team singles respectively. Hampus Holmgren, Erik Tseng, Ryan Cho and Luke Sarausad voted 2nd team doubles. Way to go, Boys Tennis!

WinterFest – from our ASB

At IHS the WinterFest season is fast approaching. In an effort to keep up school spirit in these cold and rainy months, the ASB class hosts Winter Wishes. During the weeks of Dec 2nd through Dec 13th ASB students will be accepting Winter Wishes from students during Nest and Lunch times. Starting Dec 12th those Winter Wishes will be hung on the WinterFest Tree in the main office. Once the wishes are on the tree, staff and students alike can stop by the office and find a wish they are interested in and grant it for a fellow IHS staff or student. The WinterFest Tree will be in the main office from Dec 12th through 19th, if any community members wish to participate in the granting of wishes they are more than welcome to do so. Granted wishes can be turned into the main office prior to Dec 19th. Thank you to all in advance for helping to keep the school in high spirits as we wind down the year 2019. Kelly Henry, IHS Activities Coordinator

TUTTA BELLA SCHOLAR ATHLETES:

Thursday, November 14th, 8 Senior athletes were surprised in their classes as the recipients of the Fall 2019 Scholar Athlete awards on behalf of Tutta Bella, Issaquah, Luke Ande (IHS Athletic Director) and some of their families. Tutta bella has committed to acknowledging outstanding student athletes and their achievements. The following students showed leadership to their teams, demonstrated good sportsmanship, have a GPA of 3.0 or higher and are involved in the IHS Community in addition to their sport. Congratulations to Torin Carmichael, Maya Patton, Jack Githens, Swathi Padmanabhan, Sydney Wan, Erik Tseng, Wyatt Bevill and Claire Tylulki!
