EAGLE TEAM HIGHLIGHTS:

Girls Basketball: The girls basketball program started off its first week 7-0 overall. JV and Varsity both beat Mercer Island, Liberty, and Meadowdale, and the C Team defeated Interlake. For varsity, Katie MacNary started off her season hitting all seven of her shots (14 points) vs. MI. Cam Gibson led the way in a tough battle against Liberty with 10 points and flawless point guard play, and Alivia Stephens had 20 points, 7 rebounds, 6 assists, and 3 steals in the win over Meadowdale. Sophomore Keira Hanson has scored double digit points in all three games. The girls play #3 ranked Woodinville on Wednesday before facing Skyline on Friday. (Photo cred: #1 Lijuan Hanson, #2 Stop Action Photography)

Boys Basketball: The boys got off to a bit of a bumpy start absent 6'9 starter Danny Howe (who's been sidelined for the first two games). The team looks forward to getting Danny back soon and being at full speed. The highlight in a loss to Mercer Island was a career high 20 points. And in first game of his junior year, Timmy Crandall established the IHS career assists record (which means he'll be adding to it for the next two years). In a tough one at Liberty, Tommy Reisner came off the bench to drain four threes, and played inspired basketball overall. The boys take on Woodinville at home Tuesday night and then have a big rivalry game vs. Skyline on Friday at home. C Team: The boys fought hard and won on Wednesday evening over Liberty 40-38. They take on Woodinville Monday at 7pm & Skyline on Sat. at 11:30am. Photo creds: 1 & 2 Stop Action Photography, 3: Dave Kronstad.

SWIVE (Boys Swim & Dive): The Boys Swive Team's first meet was cut short last week due to an issue with the pool. That meet will be resumed on Monday during practice. The team takes on Sammamish Tuesday at 8:30pm at Mary Wayte pool. Good Luck Eagles!

Wrestling: It was a busy week for the wrestling team beating Eastlake 49-14 and Skyline 58-15 on Thursday night to take an early 2-0 record in KingCo standings. Saturday they faced tough competition at the Ed Arima Duals finishing 2-2 in Sumner. There they had loses to WF West 56-16, and Tahoma 36-33 and defeated both Curtis 48-24 and Kent Meridian 39-36. Senior Captains, Carson Tanner and Cory Kawaguchi, lead the way each going 4-0 with 7 pins in their 8 victories. Dash Riley, Rahul Menon, Nathan Asistin, Kyle Huard and Alex Witecki all had winning records. Come out to support the wrestlers as they look to defend their KingCo title in one of their only 2 home matches this Thursday versus Mercer Island and Mt Si at 5:30. ASB's WinterFest 2019

At IHS the WinterFest season is fast approaching. In an effort to keep up school spirit in these cold and rainy months, the ASB class hosts Winter Wishes. This is the LAST WEEK ASB students will be accepting Winter Wishes from students during Nest and Lunch times. Starting Dec 12th those Winter Wishes will be hung on the WinterFest Tree in the main office. Once the wishes are on the tree, staff and students alike can stop by the office and find a wish they are interested in and grant it for a fellow IHS staff or student. The WinterFest Tree will be in the main office from Dec 12th through 19th, if any community members wish to participate in the granting of wishes they are more than welcome to do so. Granted wishes can be turned into the main office prior to Dec 19th. Thank you to all in advance for helping to keep the school in high spirits as we wind down the year 2019. Kelly Henry, IHS Activities Coordinator.
