EAGLE TEAM HIGHLIGHTS:

Dance Team: IHS Dance Team placed 1st in the Hip Hop Division at the WIAA Dance/Drill Competition this weekend at Hazen HS! What an awesome way to start the competition season! The team received qualifying scores advancing them to Districts in March. Congrats to Senior Shelby Chang and Junior Maddie Chapman for placing in top three for Drill Down competition - Way to represent IHS, Ladies!

Wrestling: The wrestling team had a successful dual meet on Thursday defeating Mercer Island 72-12. The following wrestlers won by pin: Nathan Asistin, Carson Tanner, Kyle Huard, Declan Treacy, Victor Marcenac, Brady Malone, Alex Witecki, Zach Mayes and Quinn Sieffert. The Eagles also defeated Mt Si 46-23 to maintain 1st place in KingCo with Grant Strassell and Carson Tanner winning by pin. The Eagles traveled to the "Battle of the Border" tournament in Blaine on Friday and Saturday and took 3rd place! Nathan Asistin 1st (132lbs), Carson Tanner 2nd (138), Corey Kawaguchi 3rd (182), Declan Treacy 3rd (152), Victor Marcenac 5th (160), Alex Witecki 5th (195), Dash Riley 6th (106), Rahul Menon 6th (126), Henry Hess 6th (145), Zach Fortes 8th (126), Brady Malone 8th (170), Zach Mayes 8th (220), Richard Martin 8th (285).

Gymnastics: The IHS Gymnastics team celebrate their first win of the season over district rival Skyline and Inglemoor High School! The team earned a total of 163.70 points, followed by Inglemoor with 160.40 and Skyline with 137.70. With a total of 7 gymnasts finishing in the top 15, Issaquah had several strong performances, including senior Maya Mandyam who tied for 1st place All-Around and freshman Eloise Mullet with a 3rd place finish on vault. For their next meet, Issaquah hosts Woodinville and Eastlake at IHS on January 9. We'd love for you to come out and support our gymnasts!

Boys Basketball: Varsity got its first win of the season over Enumclaw on Saturday after a couple tough games vs. Woodinville and Skyline. Saxon Cullimore had a solid week shooting the ball, including a team-high 22 points against the Spartans. The JV team went 1-1 this week: beating Woodinville 70-56 Tuesday night, with a well-balanced effort by Dietiker (18 pts), Longo (13 pts) and Sheffield & Smith (each with 11 pts). JV lost a close one to Skyline Friday. The C team remains undefeated after a great week of wins over Woodinville 60-40 and Skyline 47-41. Leading the way was Kautzsch (29 pts this week), Stroth (25 pts) & Kodosky (21 pts). A highlight of the Woodinville game was Finn Kronstad's 4-point play late in the 4th quarter.

Girls Basketball: The varsity girls basketball team lost a tough one to Woodinville after leading for much of the game. But they bounced back with a big win over Skyline on Friday and a great performance topping LW on Saturday. Alivia Stephens had back-to-back 28 point games (her career high). JV lost its first game of the year to LW, but won against Skyline and Woodinville behind great play from Keira Slippern (among others). Both Varsity and JV are now 5-1, and the C team, which beat Woodinville on Wednesday is 2-0.

Cheer: Our 22 cheerleaders were BUSY this week between 3 practices & cheering at 10 basketball games! They celebrated on Sunday with a fun holiday party & gift exchange. See below for the team's current fundraiser.

Boys SWIVE: The team started off the season with three victories this week beating Liberty, Mt. Si and Sammamish. Many Eagles contributed to the wins - individual event winners were Weston Crewe, Ryan Cho, Robert Gref, Karl Yount and Owen Zablocki. Relay winners included Crewe, Cho, Jack Githens, Adam Hansen, Luca Pungan, Josh Sun, Yount and Zablocki. The team already has 30 qualifiers for KingCo champs and 16 qualifiers for District Champs (results and a full list of qualifiers can be found here). Way to go Boys!
